NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN – It is with great sadness the NCCW contemplates the passage of the late term abortion legislation in New York and being promoted in other states of our country. We pray that our legislators will understand the sacredness and extraordinary gift of life and that abortion is not a political issue but that there is a moral imperative to preserve and cherish life at all stage. The NCCW wishes to register our opposition to these laws that destroy rather than preserve the most precious gift, life itself. Contact your congressional representatives regarding this law
