SAVE THE DATE – Our Turkey Dinner will be held on Sunday, October 30th. Mark your calendars now! More info to come. A letter will be mailed out soon requesting donations to help offset the expense of purchasing the turkey instead of asking for volunteers to bake one. Think of it as “adopting a turkey.” 😊 We will also include raffle tickets to sell for the quilt donated by Marilyn Ermer. The quilt is named “Room with Blooms” and is on display now. Chances can be bought for $1.00 each, 6 for $5.00, or 12 for $10.00. Check it out! Thanks to Marilyn for her generous donation. We will be baking our own pies this year we will be asking for pumpkin and apple pies.

ACCW ANNUAL MEETING will take place on October 8th, at Divine Word College in Epworth. The theme will be “Wide Open Hearts”. The keynote speaker will be Colleen Pasnik from Mary's Inn in Dubuque. Her talk is titled “There's Hope.” Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Michael Jackels with ACCW Spiritual Advisor Rev. Daniel Knipper and other guest priests co-celebrating. To register, please go to <https://dbqarch.org/accw-events>. Please see the flyer on the bulletin board.

TUCKPOINTING PROGRESS REPORT – Check out the display that Fr. Josh, with help, has created. Our goal is to raise around $55,000.00. This is for the tuckpointing of the church up to 100 bricks replaced – if more, it will be an additional $20.00 per brick. This includes the sealing of the new Parish Center, which was not done at the time of building because you are to wait 4-5 or so years before sealing.

THE STAFF FOR MERCY CENTER FOR MEMORY HEALTH (formerly the Mercy Memory Clinic) would like to introduce themselves and offer their services in the event that they could be of assistance to our Parish members. They help people of any age determine whether their memory concern is dementia or a normal part of aging. There is a flyer on the bulletin board with the 10 Symptoms of Dementia. Check it out.

REMEMBER WHEN – Another story from the QUASQUICENTENNIAL MOMENTS IN 2003. There are flyers on the back table talking about our church history. This was written by Sharon Kruckenberg a lifelong member of Sacred Heart. Pick up a copy!

CUCUMBERS – If anyone has more cucumbers than you need and would want to make some refrigerator pickles for our Fall Dinner that would be great! If you do make some, you can bring them to the Parish Center and put in the refrigerator. They went over well last year.
